

Safety and Health Objectives at Work

- Make health and safety an essential element in company management.
- Promote the evaluation and continuous review of preventive procedures and mechanisms in safety and health in the workplace.
- Guarantee the protection of the safety and health of workers.
- Develop training actions in occupational health and safety.
- Provide a safe and healthy work environment in the workplace.
- Identify and minimize risks in the workplace.
- Encourage the active participation of collaborators in matters of health and safety.