

Via Ferrata (Group Service) & Mountain Bike (Full Day)

Description

Climb through a Via Ferrata and then a Zip line to go down to the valley, after lunch an easy off road a easy off-road mountain bike ride through the Sacred Valley among agriculture fields, Andean terraces, villages and archaeological sites.

Itinerary

DAY 01 -Full Day

Transfer from your hotel either in Cusco (1:30hrs.) or the Sacred Valley to the Ferrata Route location near Pachar. Here passengers will meet their guides and will be given a safety briefing before receiving their equipment. Ascending will take about 1 hour while descending will take about 3 hours. Boxed lunch included. We will pick you up after lunch and go in direction to Paucarbamba bridge. Here we will receive a safety briefing and will adjust our bikes for the ride. We will go through a trail following the Urubamba river, the Sacred River of the Incas, until we reach the town of Pachar. From here we will take an easy descend through an ancient Inca Trail that passes through farming fields and Inca terraces until we reach Inca bridge and Ollantaytambo, where we finish this awesome ride. Other option is doing this Paucarbamba — Pachar route by hiking. Note: The Via Ferrata activity would be a group service and is required minimum 2 people and the pick up hour from Cusco is 8:00 am– 8:30 am aprox.